

I am writing to express my opinion on NAB's attempt to block local content from XM and Sirius Sat Radio. I have these services and use them constantly to look up traffic and weather in the location I am traveling to on a flight. I can NOT get these services on local FM and AM stations, if you block me from hearing such services, you will be restricting me from accessing them while in my car. Radio will adapt, let competition take over.